SECURITIES BROKERS AND OTHER NOMINEES: PLEASE SEE INSTRUCTIONS BELOW.

The Honorable Sue L. Robinson, United States District Judge for the District of Delaware has ordered that this Notice be sent to you. All terms are defined in the Stipulation on file with the Court.

The Court will hold a Settlement Hearing on July 31, 2008 at 4:30 p.m. at the United States Courthouse for the District of Delaware, Caleb Boggs Federal Building, Courtroom 6124, 844 N. King Street, Wilmington, DE 19801, to decide: (1) whether the settlement of the Litigation for the sum of $21.5 million in cash plus all interest earned thereon (the “Settlement Fund”) should be approved by the Court as fair, reasonable and adequate; (2) whether the Litigation should be dismissed with prejudice; (3) whether the plan of allocation of the Settlement Fund is fair, reasonable and adequate; (4) whether the application of Co-Lead Counsel for attorneys’ fees and reimbursement of costs and expenses (the “Fee and Expense Application”) should be approved; and, (5) whether the application for an award to Lead Plaintiffs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(4) (the “Lead Plaintiff Expense Application”) should be approved.

Class Recovery: The aggregate amount of the Settlement Fund proposed to be distributed to the Class is $21,500,000 plus interest earned thereon and less the costs of notice to the Class, costs of administration of the Settlement Fund, taxes and tax expenses associated with the Settlement Fund, and any amounts awarded by the Court for attorneys’ fees and reimbursement of costs and expenses. Assuming that all securities entitled to participate in the Settlement do so, Co-Lead Counsel estimate that the average recovery per damaged share of Veritas common stock under the Settlement is $0.12 per damaged share, before deduction of Court-awarded attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses. A Class Member’s actual recovery will be a proportion of the net Settlement Fund determined by the authorized claimant’s claim as compared to the total recognized claims of all Class Members who submit acceptable Proofs of Claim and Release. Individual Class Members’ actual recoveries under the Settlement will vary, depending upon when the securities were purchased, the amount they paid for the securities, the amount of proceeds they received, if any, if the securities purchased during the Class Period were sold, when the securities were sold, and the number of Claimants who actually file Proofs of Claim and Release. For a more detailed description of the allocation of the Settlement Fund, please refer to the section below entitled “Plan of Allocation.”

Potential Outcome If the Litigation Were To Continue: The settling parties do not agree on the average amount of damages per share and/or security that would be recoverable if the plaintiffs had prevailed on each of their claims under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“1934 Act”) against Defendants. The settling parties also disagree about whether plaintiffs would be able to prove their claims, including issues such as: (1) whether Defendants’ accounting was correct under generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”); (2) whether Defendants’ forecast of revenue and earnings for the quarter ended June 30, 2004 was materially misleading; (3) whether Defendants had knowledge about any GAAP violations or any materially misleading forecast of revenue or earnings; (4) whether investors suffered any damages from any misrepresentations and, if so, the measurement and amount of any such damages.

Statement of Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses Sought: Co-Lead Counsel intend to apply to the Court for an award of attorneys’ fees of no more than thirty percent (30%) of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs and expenses of up to $650,000, including an award of up to $15,000 to each Lead Plaintiff pursuant to the Lead Plaintiff Expense Application. If the amounts requested by Co-Lead Counsel are approved by the Court, the average cost per security would be approximately $0.04 per damaged share.

Identification of Lawyers’ Representatives: The Court-appointed Co-Lead Counsel are available to answer questions from Class Members about any matter contained in this Notice:

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why Did I Get This Notice Package?

You may have purchased securities of Veritas between April 23, 2003 and July 6, 2004, inclusive. The Court has asked that this Notice be sent to you because you have a right to know about the proposed settlement and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves it, and after any objections or appeals are resolved, the Claims Administrator appointed by the Court will make the payments that the settlement allows.

2. What Is This Litigation About?

This is a securities fraud class action. The Lead Plaintiffs in this case are Tay Siew Choon and Mark Leonov. The Defendants are Veritas, Edwin J. Gillis and Gary Bloom.

In the Litigation, Lead Plaintiffs alleged material misrepresentations to investors during the Class Period which are encompassed in two general sets of claims. First, Lead Plaintiffs claim that Veritas' accounting and financial results were materially misleading because they improperly deferred revenue and accelerated expenses, thereby understating net income, in certain periods, and improperly overstated revenue and net income in other periods, all in violation of GAAP. Second, Lead Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants issued financial projections which they knew were false or misleading in order to prop up the price of Veritas' stock. Specifically, the complaint asserts claims under Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the 1934 Act.

Lead Plaintiffs filed a Consolidated Amended Class Litigation Complaint on May 5, 2003. Defendants moved to dismiss this complaint on July 20, 2005. The Court upheld the complaint on May 23, 2006. Defendants then filed an answer to the complaint on June 7, 2006. Lead Plaintiffs filed the Second Consolidated Amended Class Litigation Complaint (the "Complaint") on September 5, 2006. On October 25, 2006 the Court entered an order certifying the Class. Thereafter, after mediation to settle the claims had begun, as further described below, Defendants filed a motion for summary judgment on September 19, 2007. This motion demonstrated that while the Complaint asserted meritorious claims, Defendants could assert defenses, most importantly with respect to materiality, scienter and loss causation. These issues posed risks to the Litigation and could have either resulted in the dismissal of the Litigation, or a severe curtailment of the Class' damages. Although this motion for Summary Judgment was denied by Order dated February 28, 2008, the Court did so "without prejudice" to renew, meaning that Defendants could have filed a similar motion in the future.

3. Why Is This a Class Action?

In a class action, one or more people called class representatives (in this case the Court-appointed Lead Plaintiffs, Tay Siew Choon and Mark Leonov), sue on behalf of people or entities who have similar claims. Here, the Lead Plaintiffs sued on behalf of the Class or Class Members. In this class action, the Court resolves the issues for all Class Members at the same time, except for those who voluntarily exclude themselves or opt out from the Class.

4. Why Is There a Settlement?

After nearly four years of litigation, the review of over 1.2 million pages of documents, exchange of extensive discovery, the conduct of numerous interviews with former employees of Veritas, and months of negotiations, both sides agreed to a settlement based on a compromise of the claims and defenses. The settlement was arrived at through several arms' length negotiations and the assistance of a mediator. Lead Plaintiffs and their attorneys agreed to a settlement in principle after considering the results of their factual and legal investigation of the Class' claims, and the real possibility that Defendants could prevail upon certain of their arguments in connection with a Motion for Summary Judgment, which would have resulted in the dismissal of the Litigation — and no recovery for the Class. In addition, even after reaching the settlement in principle, counsel for the Lead Plaintiffs conducted extensive additional discovery, including reviewing transcripts of SEC testimony by approximately ten former Veritas officers or employees, including Individual Defendants Bloom and Gillis, and conducting new interviews with approximately eight (8) former Veritas officers and employees, including Defendants Bloom and Gillis, in order to confirm the adequacy, reasonableness and fairness of the settlement.

Based on their analysis and investigation of the claims, Lead Plaintiffs and their counsel believe that the Settlement is in the best interests of all Class Members.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE IN THE SETTLEMENT?

To see if you will receive a distribution from this Settlement, you first have to determine if you are a Class Member.

5. How Do I Know If I Am A Class Member?

You are in the Class if you purchased or acquired securities of Veritas between April 23, 2003 and July 6, 2004, inclusive (the “Class Period”), and you were damaged thereby.

6. Who Is Excluded From The Class?

Excluded from the Class are: (a) Defendants; (b) members of the immediate family of each of the Individual Defendants; (c) any entity in which any Defendant has or had a controlling interest; (d) current or former directors and officers of Veritas during the Class Period; (e) the legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns of any such excluded Person or entity; and (f) any Person who timely and validly excludes himself, herself or itself from the Class by submitting an exclusion request.

7. I Am Still Not Sure If I Am Included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included in the Class, you can ask for free help. You can call the Claims Administrator, Berdon Claims Administration LLC, at (800) 766-3330, fax to (516) 931-0810, or visit www.berdonclaims.com for more information. Or, you can fill out and return the claim form described below, and the Claims Administrator will determine if you qualify.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

8. What Does the Settlement Provide?

Defendants have agreed to pay $21.5 million in cash to settle the Litigation. This Settlement Fund will be distributed to eligible Class Members who send in valid Proof of Claim forms with the required documentation, after other Court-approved payments are deducted from the Settlement Fund (the “Net Settlement Fund”). These other payments include: payment of Court-approved attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and the costs of notice and administration of the Settlement.

9. How Much Will My Payment Be?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will depend upon: (a) the number of valid Proof of Claim forms that Class Members have submitted (the fewer the number of Class Members who choose to participate in the Settlement, the larger the recovery for each participant); (b) the number of securities you purchased or otherwise acquired during the Class Period; and (c) when you bought and sold your Veritas securities.

In order for you to recover, you must have suffered an actual monetary loss on the securities that you purchased or acquired during the Class Period.

10. Plan of Allocation of Settlement Proceeds Among Class Members

The $21.5 million Settlement Fund, plus interest earned thereon, less taxes, approved costs, fees and expenses (the “Net Settlement Fund”) shall be distributed to Members of the Class who submit valid Proofs of Claim (“Authorized Claimants”). The Claims Administrator shall determine each Authorized Claimant’s pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund based upon each Authorized Claimant’s “Recognized Claim” (or “Recognized Loss”). To the extent there are sufficient funds in the Net Settlement Fund, each Authorized Claimant will receive an amount equal to the Authorized Claimant’s claim, as defined below. If, however, the amount in the Net Settlement Fund is not sufficient to permit payment of the total claim of each Authorized Claimant, then each Authorized Claimant shall be paid the percentage of the Net Settlement Fund that each Authorized Claimant’s claim bears to the total claims of all Authorized Claimants.

The Plan of Allocation is derived from analysis by Plaintiffs' damages expert of the market-adjusted declines in the price of Veritas stock upon disclosure of the accounting restatement on March 15, 2004 ($0.56 per share) and disclosure of the actual terms of the restatement on June 14, 2004 ($0.11 per share), as well as the market-adjusted decline in the price of Veritas stock upon disclosure following trading on July 2, 2004 of the failure to meet revenue and earnings guidance provided by Veritas ($8.50 per share); the adjusted price drop of $8.50 per share following July 2, 2004 was reduced by 50% based upon Lead Counsel's analysis of the likelihood of success of proving the claims related to the earnings guidance. The complete Plan of Allocation is as follows:

SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

11. How Will I Get a Payment?

To qualify for a payment, you must be an eligible Class Member and you must send in a Proof of Claim form with proper documentation. A Proof of Claim form accompanies this Notice. Read the instructions carefully, then fill out the form, include all the documents the form asks for, sign the form, and mail it so that it is received by the Claims Administrator no later than August 28, 2008, at the following address: Veritas Software Corporation Securities Litigation, c/o Berdon Claims Administration LLC, P.O. Box 9014, Jericho, NY 11753-8914.

12. When Will I Get My Payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on July 31, 2008, to decide whether to approve, among other things the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and Fee and Expense Application. If the Court approves the Settlement, there may be appeals. The appeal process can take time. However, if no appeals of the Settlement are taken, distribution of the Settlement Fund will commence several months after the claims received are processed and reviewed. As a reminder the deadline for filing claims is August 28, 2008.

13. What Am I Giving Up to Get a Payment and Stay In the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself, you are a Class Member and therefore cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants and certain other related parties arising from the same legal and factual issues involved in this Litigation. The Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you and, in return for a distribution from the Settlement Fund, you will release your claims in this Litigation against all Defendants. The specific terms of the release are included in the Proof of Claim and Release form that is enclosed.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want a payment from this Settlement or to release Defendants, and want to maintain the right to sue Defendants on your own about the same legal and factual issues involved in this Litigation, then you must take steps to exclude yourself or "opt-out" from the Class.

To exclude yourself or "opt-out" from the Class, you must send a letter by mail specifically stating that you want to be excluded from In re Veritas Software Corporation Securities Litigation, Case No. 04-CV-831 (SLR). You must include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, and the type of Veritas securities and amount you held on April 23, 2003, the type of Veritas securities and amount you purchased or acquired and sold between April 23, 2003 and July 6, 2004. Your exclusion request must be mailed so that it is received no later than June 30, 2008 at: Veritas Software Corporation Securities Litigation – Exclusions, c/o Berdon Claims Administration LLC, P.O. Box 9014, Jericho, NY 11753-8914.

You cannot exclude yourself by phone or e-mail. You must submit a written request for exclusion. If you ask to be excluded, you are not eligible to get any distribution from the Settlement Fund, and you cannot object to the Settlement. You will not be legally bound by the release entered in this Litigation.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

14. Do I Have a Lawyer In This Case?

The Court appointed the law firms of Harwood Feffer LLP, Labaton Sucharow LLP, and Schatz Nobel IZard PC, as Co-Lead Counsel to represent you and other Class Members in this Litigation. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

15. How Will the Lawyers Be Paid?

Co-Lead Counsel will ask the Court to award: (a) attorneys' fees not to exceed 30% of the Settlement Fund; and (b) for reimbursement of costs and expenses up to $650,000, including expenses related to expert analysis and reports. Any amounts awarded by the Court will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Members are not personally liable for any such fees or expenses.

The attorneys' fees and expenses requested, to the extent they are awarded by the Court, will be the only payment to Co-Lead Counsel for their efforts.

YOUR RIGHT TO OBJECT

If you are a Class Member and you have facts which lead you to believe that the Settlement is not fair, reasonable or adequate, or if you object to the proposed Plan of Allocation or the Fees and Expense Application by Co-Lead Counsel, you can write to the Court. You can object only if you stay in the Class. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you may not object to any of these matters in this Litigation. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any distribution from the Net Settlement Fund.

Your letter to the Court must reference In re Veritas Software Corporation Securities Litigation, Case No. 04-CV-831 (SLR). You must include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, proof of membership in the Class including the type of Veritas securities and amount you held on April 23, 2003 and the type of Veritas securities and amount you purchased or acquired and sold between April 23, 2003 and July 6, 2004, and state the basis of your objection together with any supporting documentation.
